TX Confederate Pensions

Under the Texas Constitution of 1867, pensions were paid to those who served in the United States military forces during the Civil War. The Constitution of 1876 prohibited legislative grants of public money to individuals, but in 1881 the legislature approved an act providing 1,280 acres of land for men, and widows of men, who had been permanently disabled from wounds received while in the service of the state or of the Confederate States. A legislative joint resolution in 1897, followed by an amendment to the Constitution of 1898, prepared the way for the Confederate Pension Law of 1899.

On 12 May 1899 the legislature approved a law providing pensions for disabled and indigent men, and widows of such men, who served in the military forces of the Confederate States of America. To be eligible for a pension the person had to be a native of Texas OR have lived in Texas before 1 Jan. 1880 AND they had to be over 60 years of age OR their disability must have been a result of actual service in the Confederate Army of a period of at least 3 months, and who had not deserted. So, to be eligible for the 1899 act the soldier had to be born before 1839 and must have lived in Texas since 1 Jan. 1880.

A widow was eligible under the 1899 act if she was in indigent circumstances, had never remarried, had been in Texas by 1 March 1880 and was married to the soldier prior to 1 March 1866.

A veteran of the Confederate Army had to be found on the roll of his company or regiment or he had to find persons who could attest to his service. He gave his age, where he was born, how long he had lived in Texas, and how long he had lived at his present address. In addition, he gave the place where he enlisted.

In 1925 the pension act was revised to include every indigent or disabled Confederate veteran who came to Texas prior to 1 Jan. 1910. Widows were included and they had to have lived in Texas by 1910 and had to have been born before 1861. This act also included men who had served in the state militia or who protected the frontier against Indian and Mexican raids.

The pension applications were submitted to the county judge, then to the county commissioners and then to the state comptroller.

Widow's applications include name, data and place of marriage, husband's full name and his date of death. Also included is the military unit and sometimes the place where the veteran enlisted. Most of the widow's pensions include an "Application for Mortuary Warrant." This warrant includes when the widow died, undertaker's certificate, and lists her next of kin (or executor of her estate).

There are 65,014 pensions in the Texas State Archives. There are 277 Martin pension applications, 48 of these are rejected applications. In this issue we have abstracted genealogical information from applications made from Dallas and Parker counties. In coming issues we will have abstracts from other counties. Each group of abstracts will be by county of residence and not in alphabetical order.

Letters from the War Dept. in Washington included in many pension files state: The collection of Confederate records in this department is incomplete, and the failure to find the complete record of a person thereon is by no means conclusive proof that such person did not serve during some period not covered by this record.

The Index to Applications for Texas Confederate Pensions is available from the Texas State Library and you can also request forms to order these pensions - Order For Texas Veteran Records. The address is: Archives, Texas State Library, Box 12927, Capitol Station, Austin, TX 78711.

When ordering these pensions be sure to check veteran and widow, so you will receive both applications. The veteran and widow may have been pensioned in different counties.

We don't really care who shot J. R. Ewing on the television series "Dallas," but we do care about the ancestory of Larry HAGMAN. Larry MARTIN HAGMAN was born 21 Sept. 1931 to Ben HAGMAN and Mary MARTIN. Mary MARTIN, star of stage and screen, played Peter Pan on Broadway. Larry MARTIN HAGMAN was named as a grandchild in the obituary of Mrs. Preston MARTIN.

Mary MARTIN is the daughter of Preston MARTIN and Juanita PRESLEY. Preston MARTIN was born 6 April 1872 in Miss. and died 20 Dec. 1938 in Weatherford, Parker Co. TX where he was a practicing attorney. He married

10 Aug. 1899 to Juanita PRESLEY. They were both buried in Old Greenwood Cemetery, Weatherford, TX. Preston MARTIN was the son of James A. MARTIN and Geraldine HEARON.

James A. MARTIN and Geraldine HEARON

James A. MARTIN was born 7 Sept. 1845 in Alabama according to the 1880 and 1900 census of Parker Co. TX. He married about 1866/7 in Mississippi to Geraldine HEARON, born 26 Jan. 1847, AL, d. 4 Oct. 1910, Weatherford, TX. James A. MARTIN, a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, moved with his father to Poplar Creek [in present Montgomery Co. Miss. (formed in 1871 from Carroll and Choctaw counties)] in 1850 when he was five years old. In 1877 James A. MARTIN moved to Texas and settled at Long Creek, 15 miles southeast of Weatherford, TX and in 1905 moved to Weatherford. Both James and Geraldine MARTIN are buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Weatherford.

James A. MARTIN died 25 April 1931 in Floydada, Floyd Co. TX at the home of his daughter, Lela (Mrs. W. M. MASSIE). His death certificate filed with the Floyd Co. TX clerk of court says his parents were Jackson MARTIN and Nancy SAWYER.

Two men by the name of Jackson MARTIN are found in the 1850 Alabama census index, both in Macon Co. AL. No men named Jackson MARTIN are found in the 1850 census index for Miss.

In the 1880 census for Parker Co. TX James A. MARTIN said his father was born in SC and mother in SC. In the 1900 census for Parker Co. he said his father was born in SC and mother in AL.

James A. MARTIN's 1931 obituary names as survivors: (brother) A. J. MARTIN of Sunflower, Miss.; (sister) Mrs. Leigh FOX of Sunflower, Miss. [Sunflower in Sunflower Co. Miss.]; and (sister) Mrs. W. N. CLUTE of Indianapolis, Ind.

Children of James A. MARTIN and Geraldine HEARON MARTIN: Howard, Lela, Preston, Eugene H., Luther, Bernard, A. J., James C. and Claude M. MARTIN.

We are continuing research on this lineage and will present our findings at a later date.

Index to Applications for Texas Confederate Pensions

Editor's Note: Widow's pensions may be indexed under the husband's initials or under the initials of her first name. A widow indexed under Mrs. S. E. MARTIN could be Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth MARTIN or Mrs. Samuel E. MARTIN. If you are at a dead end in your research it would be worth your while to "go fishing." These pensions usually cost about $1.00 and it may help you to order all Martin pensions from the county where your Martins lived and the surrounding counties. The widow of a brother of your ancestor may have moved to a different county, but her pension application may give you valuable information about her husband's location during the Civil War.

The county locations in this index are the place where the person lived when pensioned. These applications were made from 1899 up until the 1940's.

Even if you don't have Martin ancestors in Texas look for the brother who went to Texas (or went west) and was never heard from again.
